

Tracks after Medical School in Brazil

Marianna Leite,
Santa Marcelina School of Medicine, 2027,
AAN Member

Medical School = 6 years (no undergrad required)

1

Basic Sciences Cycle = 2 years

Courses such as: Anatomy, Physiology, Histology, Pharmacology, Pathology

2

Clinical Rotations = 2 years

Clinical courses and rotations on Child health, women's health, mental health, internal medicine and surgical specialties

3

Internship = 2 years

Rotations in primary care + mandatory and elective rotations

4

Graduation = General Practitioner

Able to work as a GP / Primary care physician

What's next?

Residency track

Residency exam score + Practice Exam + Medical School grades + CV

Primary care track

Residency exam score + CV

Military track

Residency exam score + CV

Thank you!

msmariannaleite@gmail.com

